

Baby Gear

- Baby Wipes
- Bug Netting (for crib/carrier/strolled; find at fabric store)
- Changing Pad (towel will work)
- Child Carrier (backpack style/front carrier)
- Diapers
- Portable crib tent (I prefer the Peapod)
- Stroller (only packed if there will be paved campground)

Bedding/Sleeping

- Air Mattress
- Air Mattress Pump
- Baby Blanket (for naps)
- Batteries for pump (critical)
- Pillows
- Sheets
- Tent (we use a hand-me-down from a friend but Coleman has great options that are easy to find)
- Tent Pad (a cheap tarp will work; helps keep the bottom of the tent from getting wet)

Clothing Necessities

- Bathing Suits
- Flashlights/Headlamps
- Hats
- Hoodies
- Life Jacket
- River Shoes
- Socks
- Undies

Family Medical Kit

- Antibiotic Ointment/Wipes
- Aspirin/Baby Tylenol or Ibuprofen
- Bandages
- Benadryl
- Thermometer
- Tweezers (good for removing splinters and ticks)

Fun Stuff:

- Baby Bath Toys (for water play)
- Balloons
- Balls
- Bean Bags
- Bubbles
- Glow sticks
- Inflatables (for water play)
- Instruments (tambourine, drums, train whistle, kazoo)
- Shovels

Handy Campsite Tools

- Clothespins
- Duct tape
- Hammer or Mallet (to secure the tent)
- Multi-tool/Utility Knife
- Rope (for clothesline or last minute crisis)
- Scissors
- Small Collapsible Foot Stool (multipurpose use as a seat)
- Small Hand Broom w/ Dust Pan (for sweeping out the tent)
- Tarp (for overhead shelter)
- Tub of Disinfectant Cleaning Wipes (great for kitchen clean up)

Kitchen

- Baby Bowl, Cups, Spoon
- Baby Food Containers (for condiments, dressings, etc.)
- Camp Chairs (small collapsible foot stools can be used if space limited)
- Camp Kitchen (I use a Coleman camp table)
- Can Opener
- Charcoal and Lighter Fuel (if grilling)
- Citronella Candles (for campsite perimeter to keep out mosquitoes)
- Collapsible Sink (I use an old Thirty-One bag to hold kitchen use it later to wash dishes)
- Cooking Pots
- Cooler
- Cooler Bag
- Cork Screw
- Cups, Plastic

Kitchen (Continued)

- Dish Detergent (I prefer Dr. Bronner's/environmentally safe soap)
- Dutch Oven
- Cork Screw
- Cups, Plastic
- Dish Detergent (I prefer Dr. Bronner's/environmentally safe soap)
- Dutch Oven
- Extra Water (to keep at your site)
- Foil
- Fry Pan
- Grill Top (for fire-pits without a grill top; foil on top of the coals will work in a pinch)
- Hot Pads
- Knives with Slip On Covers
- Koozies
- LED Lantern (no fooling with Kerosene lantern pieces)
- Lighter
- Paper Towels
- Plates, Plastic or Paper
- Coffee Press
- Spatula and Grill Tools
- Sponge
- Stove (I prefer a Coleman stove)
- Stove Fuel
- Table Cloth
- Thermos
- Trash Bags
- Utensils
- Wood (some parks do not allow your own wood but offer it at local stores)
- Ziplocs

Toiletries

- Baby Wipes (very handy for campsite cleanup)
- Bath Towels and Washcloths
- Cash (for boat rentals, self-pay campgrounds, etc.)
- Deodorant
- Hand Sanitizer
- Lip Balm
- Razor (for last minute swimsuit touch-ups)
- Shampoo (Dr. Bronner's will work for this)
- Soap (Dr. Bronner's will work for this)
- Sunscreen
- Toilet Paper and Hand Shovel (for more primitive sites)
- Toothbrushes/Toothpaste

